Notice concerning the cancellation of Euro-yen convertible bonds with stock acquisition rights due in 2012

Tokyo, August 10th, 2010—FinTech Global Incorporated (hereafter “the Company”) gives notice of the cancellation of part of Euro-yen convertible bonds with stock acquisition rights due in 2012 held by Stellar Capital AG, which is a wholly-owned Swiss-based subsidiary of the Company. Details are presented below.

Particulars

1. Specified bonds:

Euro-yen convertible bonds with stock acquisition rights due in 2012

2. Amount to be cancelled (par value)

¥1,890 million

3. Cancellation date

August 13th, 2010 (scheduled)

4. Principal amount outstanding after cancellation (par value)

¥1,200million

5. Impact on financial results

The Company expects to post a ¥119 million gain on redemption of bonds in the 4th Quarter of FY2010.

6. Future Outlook

Regarding the impact of the consolidated performance forecast for FY2010, please see the press release “Notice concerning revisions to the performance forecast for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2010” issued today.

Note:

The ¥1,890 million CB which the Company resolved to cancel, is part of CB purchased by Stellar Capital from third parties for the first quarter. Also, the ¥1,890 CB was transferred to the Company from Stellar Capital on July 30th, 2010.

The remaining CB ¥1,200 million (face value), has been transferred to a third party (investor) during the third quarter of FY2010. The transferred CB has a recourse provision attached, and therefore, as per accounting rules, this transaction has been processed as a borrowing, with the pledging of the CB as collateral.
